

Ensure compliance with Australian Dangerous Goods Code

OUTLINE

This training involves the essential skills and knowledge required to Ensure compliance with Australian Dangerous Goods Code, including:

1. Ensure responsibilities for handling dangerous goods are defined;
2. Manage performance and control risks;
3. Maintain records, and
4. Evaluate effectiveness

CONTENT includes:

- Relevant sections of national and state or territory regulatory requirements and codes of practice, including detailed knowledge and understanding of the Australian Dangerous Goods Code, the conditions and the employees to whom it applies
- Relevant OH&S and environmental procedures and regulations particularly as they overlap with the current ADG Code
- Operational procedures for safe transfer and storage of dangerous goods and hazardous materials

- Requirements for completing relevant documentation in line with requirements of the current ADG Code
- Procedures to be followed in the event of an emergency
- Procedures for managing and controlling hazardous situations when carrying out work activities
- Communicate effectively with others when completing work activities, particularly in order to ensure their understanding of the current ADG Code and their responsibilities in relation to it
- Read and interpret the current ADG Code, related documents and procedures, and information materials provided as guidance notes
- Complete documentation related to work activities
- Implement contingency plans for unplanned events, particularly to deal with any potential breaches of the current ADG Code
- Recognise hazards and apply precautions and required action to minimise, control or eliminate hazards that may exist during work activities and engage others in the process
- Modify activities depending on differing operational contingencies, risk situations and environments
- Monitor work activities of team members in terms of planned schedule
- Select and use required personal protective clothing and equipment conforming to industry and OH&S standards

Units of competency

TLIF4065 Ensure compliance with Australian Dangerous Goods Code

Application of Training

This unit involves the skills and knowledge required to ensure compliance with the current Australian Dangerous Goods Code (ADG code). It includes ensuring responsibilities for the handling and transport of dangerous goods are defined; managing performance and controlling risks; maintaining records; and evaluating effectiveness

Who is this training for?

Transport, Operations, Logistics, Terminal, Fleet, Warehouse, Distribution), Supervisors, Administrators

Duration

4 hours

Cost

Cost on Application

Day rates may be available.

For more information, please call 1300 554 077.